David Nuffer:

I have no faith in the U.S. Attorney's office of Utah. Allison J.P. Moon is an activist. She is aligned with Utah Wilderness Coalition and has served as a board member. I formally request that she be removed from any involvement in my case. To allow her to remain involved is an affront to me and to the so-called rule of law. Four Federal Judges recused themselves from my case because of their conflict of interest which they asserted, one was Robert Shelby who did so only after he presided over my trial, suppressed testimony, withheld documents to the jury, and achieved a bogus conviction.

You stated at the time of sentencing that you had not slept much because you had been reading my case. My only thought at the time was, why did you not read the case previously before you determined that the case was not worthy or a retrial after Shelby's recusal? Why did you not read the case prior to the restitution hearing? The sentencing was the final step, and while I am grateful that you read the case before sending me to jail, I wonder still if you ever actually read the case.

Did you read the ERO Resources Corp archaeology report that stated "Archaeologists familiar with these types of sites would recognize that there is limited information potential and that this portion of the site does not contain significant archeological deposits that would require restoration and repair. There are, in fact, no significant archaeological deposits to be protected and to apply damages would be entirely spurious."?

No, you did not read those reports, you simply went with the popular opinion of SUWA attorneys. The report from ERO was in response to the lie that the BLM told, and they told a lie to the court that they paid $95,000 for it. Of course, you went along with the lie rather than the truth. I do not blame you, but I don't excuse your complicity either. A higher judge will determine who was in the wrong during this sham of a court proceeding.

Until then,

Phil Lyman

P.S. The media reported that I had been notified three times. The letter I found in my mailbox on August 17th was the first notice I received. I had determined to send my returns but then I received a call from Ben Winslow asking how I felt about being charged with contempt. I told him I had not heard. There is not a single action against me that I have been informed of prior to being accosted by the media. Shame on your court. Shame on you.

I know the Justice system to be little more than a tool in the hands of disingenuous people like John Huber, Allison Moon, Robert Shelby, Jared Bennett, Paul Cassell, David Nuffer, SUWA attorney, Stephen Bloch and his wife and former law partner with Robert Shelby, Kara Pettit, Brent Hatch, and many other attorneys whose loyalty is not to justice, but to each other. Enjoy reading my tax returns.
